Employees are encouraged to speak directly to their immediate supervisor and resolve any issues they may have informally. Such informal discussions shall not, however, affect the time frame to process grievances/arbitrations under this Agreement.

Section 2. In order to commence the grievance/arbitration process, a written grievance must be filed by the employee or the Union. The grievance must set forth the specific action complained of and the provisions of the Agreement that are alleged to be violated.

- d. The Employer shall provide the employee and/or steward with a written response to the grievance within ten (10) working days of receipt or request a grievance meeting within ten (10) working days.
- e. If no response is provided within ten (10) working days, it shall act as a denial of the grievance and entitle the Union to proceed to Step 2.

STEP 2:

- a. If no settlement is reached in Step 1, the Union Staff Representative may bring the grievance to Step 2 by filing a written notice with the Human Resources Office within fourteen (14) working days after receiving the Employer's response to the Step 1 grievance.
- b. The Employer and the Union shall meet within fifteen (15) working days following the receipt of the Union's notification in order to attempt to resolve the grievance.
- c. The Employer will respond in writing within five (5) working days of its meeting with the Union.

Section 4. Both parties can mutually agree to extend the time limits under this Article to settle a grievance with written communication and confirmation from the other party. Any extension should not exceed fourteen (14) working days.

Section 5. The Arbitrator shall not be empowered and shall lack jurisdiction to require the Employer to take any action contrary to or inconsistent with any action required by State law, regulation or contract.

Section 6. The cost of the arbitration shall be borne equally between the Employer and the Union.

Section 7. The parties agree that the award of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding. The Arbitrator shall have no power to add to or subtract from the provisions contained in this Agreement, and any award, or portion of any award, which exceeds the Arbitrator's powers under this Agreement, shall be void. In the event the Arbitrator finds that discharge was not based on just cause and that an award of back pay is appropriate, the Arbitrator shall reduce back pay by all outside earnings.

Section 7. PSL must be taken in hourly increments except exempt employees must take PSL time in ½ day increments.

Section 8. Employees are allowed to carry over up to eighty-four (84) hours. 12-month employees may use no more than 124 hours in a 12 month period. Upon termination, resignation, retirement or other separation from employment, the employee will not be reimbursed for any accrued but unused PSL.

Section 9. If an employee is terminated or laid off and is rehired within six (6) months of the termination or lay-off, previously unused and unpaid accrued PSL will be reinstated; otherwise, the rehiring of an employee will not result in the reinstatement of any PSL.

Section 10. Employees shall not accrue PSL time during unpaid leaves.

Section 11. LCDP will not retaliate against any employee who has properly exercised their rights to PSL.

Section 12. At the sole discretion of the President and CEO, LCDP may loan PSL time in advance under extenuating circumstances. The President/CEO Director has the right to deny a PSL loan request.

Title 37; (D) A grandparent or spouse, civil union parent or domestic partner of a grandparent; (E) A grandchild; (F) A domestic partner of an employee as defined in N.J.S.A. 26:8A-3et seq. or (6) A sibling.

ARTICLE 22 – BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

Section 1. Regular full-time and part-time employees may take up to three (3) days of paid bereavement leave in the event of a death in the employee's immediate family.

Section 2. "Immediate family" means an employee's spouse, domestic partner (see section 4 of P.L. 2003, c. 246), civil union partner, child, legal ward, grandchild, foster child, father, mother, legal guardian, grandfather, grandmother, brother, sister, father-in-law, mother-in-law, and other relatives residing in the employee's household or any other individual whose close association with the employee is the equivalent of a family relationship, such as a step-relative (N.J. Admin. Code § 4A:1-1.3).

Section 3. An employee with supervisor's approval can take additional time off using PTO leave. Additional PTO after Bereavement leave will normally be granted unless there are unusual business needs or staffing requirements.

Section 4. All bereavement requests must be accompanied by an obituary, formal announcement, or other reasonable proof.

ARTICLE 23 – JURY DUTY

Section 1. Employees who are summoned for jury duty will be excused from work until jury duty is completed. Employees must provide LCDP with a copy of the Order to Appear or subpoena (or equivalent) and confirmation of the days served. Employees with supporting documents will be compensated at their normal rate. Employees are required to notify their immediate supervisor of their summons as soon as they receive it. Employees are expected to return to the job if they are excused from jury duty during their regular working hours.

ARTICLE 24 – POLITICAL ACTION LEAVE

Section 1. Each employee shall have the opportunity to exercise their right to vote in any election, whether local, state or federal or primary, general or special. Employees who require time away from work to vote or who choose to be actively involved in the election process can use available PTO. When employees of LCDP engage in activity that supports or opposes a candidate for public office, such activity is personal in nature and is outside of the scope of the individual's employment with LCDP. Paid staff and volunteers are expected to avoid the appearance that their personal political activity is authorized by or on behalf of LCDP. No employee shall engage in any political activities during working hours.

ARTICLE 25 – MILITARY LEAVE

Section 1. In accordance with Federal and State laws, upon being given appropriate notice LCDP will provide eligible employees who voluntarily or involuntarily leave a position of employment (other than a temporary position) for the purpose of performing military duty or training with the required leave of absence. Upon satisfaction of all legal requirements for reinstatement, the employee will be restored to their position of employment, or one of like seniority, status, and pay unless the employee is no longer qualified for such position or unless changed circumstances make reemployment impossible or unreasonable. Full-time employees will be paid the difference between their normal rate of pay and their military pay for up to two weeks per calendar year.

Section 2. Employees must provide the Employer with a copy of their order to serve within three (3) working days of receipt and payment records from the service in order to be compensated.

ARTICLE 26 – MEDICAL LEAVE/FAMILY LEAVE

Section 1. Under the provisions of the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) eligible employees may take up to twelve (12) weeks of unpaid job protected "Basic FMLA Leave" within a 12-month period for certain reasons and up to twenty-six (26) weeks of unpaid job protected "Military Caregiver FMLA Leave" within a single 12-month period to care for a Covered Service member. The 12-month period for the twelve (12) weeks of Basic FMLA Leave shall be a rolling year that commences with the first day of leave taken. The 12-month period for the twenty-six (26) weeks of Military Caregiver FMLA Leave shall be the period that begins on the first day the eligible employee takes Military Caregiver Leave and ends twelve (12) months after that date.

Section 2. Eligibility for FMLA Leave

To be eligible for FMLA leave, an Employee must have worked for LCDP: (1) for at least twelve (12) months (which need not be consecutive); and (2) have worked for at least 1,250 hours in the twelve (12) months preceding the anticipated leave; and (3) work at a LCDP work site that has 50 or more employees or, within a 75-mile radius of LCDP work sites that have a total of 50 or more employees.

Section 3. Leave Entitlement

Eligible employees may take Basic FMLA Leave for the following reasons: (1) for incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth; (2) to care for a child upon birth or upon placement for adoption or foster care; (3) to care for a parent, spouse, or child with a serious health condition; or (4) when an employee is unable to work because of the employee's own serious health condition. In addition, eligible employees whose spouse, son, daughter or parent is on covered active military duty or call to covered active military duty status may use their 12-week Basic FMLA Leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

Eligible employees may take Military Caregiver FMLA Leave to care for a covered service member. A covered service member is (1) a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness; or (2) a veteran who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the eligible employee takes FMLA leave to care for the covered veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness.

FMLA defines a "serious health condition" for Basic FMLA Leave as an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves: (1) inpatient care (i.e., an overnight hospital stay), including any period of incapacity or any subsequent treatment in connection with the inpatient care; or (2) "continuing treatment" by a health care provider. FMLA defines "serious injury or illness" for Military Caregiver FMLA Leave as an injury or illness incurred by a covered service member in the line of duty on active duty that may render the service member medically unfit to perform the duties of the member's office, grade, or rating.

Where LCDP employs both spouses, they are entitled to a combined total of twelve (12) weeks of leave: (1) for birth, adoption or foster care; or (2) to care for a parent with a serious health condition. Each spouse is entitled to the balance of any available FMLA leave, up to the 12-week maximum, for his/her own serious health condition or to care for his/her child, without counting FMLA leave taken by the other spouse. Any leave taken due to the birth of a child or the placement of a child for adoption or foster care, must be completed within 12-months of the birth or adoption.

Section 4. Notice and Certification

Employees who want to take leave for any reason permitted by the FMLA ordinarily must provide LCDP at least thirty (30) days' notice of the need for leave, if the need for leave is foreseeable. If the need is not foreseeable, the Employee should give as much notice as is practicable (within one or two days of learning of the need for leave). Failure to provide such notice may be grounds for delay of the leave. When leave is needed to care for an immediate family member or for an Employee's own illness and is for planned medical treatment, the Employee must try to schedule treatment in order to prevent disruptions to LCDP business operations.

In addition, if an Employee needs leave for their own or a family member's serious health condition or a covered service member's serious injury or illness, the Employee must provide a medical certification from a health care provider of the serious health condition or serious injury or illness. LCDP also may require a second or third opinion (at LCDP's expense), and/or periodic re-certification of the serious health condition. LCDP may deny leave to employees who do not provide proper medical certification. When the leave is a result of the Employee's own serious health condition, a fitness for duty certification is required to return to work.

Section 5. Benefits during FMLA Leave

If an Employee takes FMLA protected leave, the Employee is entitled to receive health benefits during the leave at the same level and terms of coverage as if the Employee had been working throughout the leave. If applicable, arrangements will be made for the Employee to pay their share of health insurance premiums while on leave. While on unpaid FMLA leave an Employee can pay their share of premiums in several ways. As required under FMLA regulations, LCDP will provide advance written notice of the terms and conditions under which the Employee's share of premium payments must be made. In some instances, LCDP may recover premiums it paid to maintain health coverage for an Employee who fails to return to work from FMLA leave. If an Employee elects not to return to work at the end of the leave for at least thirty (30) calendar days, the Employee will be required to reimburse LCDP for the cost of the premiums paid by LCDP for maintaining coverage during the leave.

Section 6. Substitution of Paid Time for Unpaid FMLA Leave

An employee's use of FMLA leave will not result in the loss of any available employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of your leave. However, to the extent permitted by law, accrued PTO and/or PSL time may be applied to any available FMLA leave at the discretion of the Employee.

Section 7. Job Restoration after FMLA Leave

LCDP will reinstate an Employee returning from FMLA leave to the same or equivalent position with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms and conditions. However, an Employee on an FMLA leave does not have any greater right to reinstatement or to other benefits and conditions of employment than if the Employee had been continuously employed during the FMLA leave period. To facilitate a return to work, LCDP requests at least two weeks' advanced notice.

If an Employee is returning from leave taken for their own serious health condition, the Employee will be required to provide a certification of fitness for employment. LCDP may only request fitness for duty certification with regard to the specific health condition for which leave was taken. Job protected FMLA leave is for a maximum period of 12 weeks. Should the Employee request, and be granted, an extended leave beyond the 12-week period required by law, LCDP will seek to return the Employee to a suitable position, but does not guarantee that one will be available. During this extended period, the Employee may be eligible for continuing disability benefits in accordance with any applicable insurance coverage.

However, that extended leave will be unpaid. In addition, if an Employee needs leave for their own or a family member's serious health condition or a covered service member's serious injury or illness, the Employee must provide medical certification from a health care provider of the serious health condition or serious injury or illness. LCDP also may require a second or third opinion (at LCDP's expense), and/or periodic re-certification of the serious health condition. LCDP may deny leave to employees who do not provide proper medical certification. When the leave is a result of your own serious health condition, a fitness for duty certification is required to return to work.

Section 8. Other Provisions

The FMLA does not affect any federal or state law prohibiting discrimination or supersede any state or local law that provides greater family or medical leave rights.

Section 9. New Jersey Family Leave

An Employee may be entitled to family leave under the New Jersey Family Leave Act (NJFLA). The NJFLA requires employers with thirty (30) or more employees worldwide to provide twelve (12) weeks of unpaid (or substituted paid) leave in a twenty-four (24) month period. The 24-month period shall be a rolling year that commences with the first day of leave taken. To be eligible, the employee must be employed for at least twelve (12) months and have worked at least one thousand (1000) hours during the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the anticipated leave. Leave may be taken to care for a newborn, foster, or adopted child; to care for a child, parent, spouse, or other eligible family member with a serious health condition; to care for an eligible family member who has been isolated or quarantined because of suspected exposure to a communicable disease during a state of emergency; or to provide required child care or treatment for a child if their school or place of care is closed by order of a public official due to an epidemic of a communicable disease or other public health emergency during a state of emergency. Leave is not provided under the NJFLA for the illness of the employee. To the extent permitted by law, all accrued PTO and PSL time may be applied to any available NJFLA leave at the discretion of the Employee.

A parent means a person who is the biological parent, adoptive parent, foster parent, resource family parent, stepparent, parent-in-law or legal guardian, having a "parent-child relationship" with a child as defined by law, or having sole or joint legal or physical custody, care guardianship, or visitation with a child, or who became the parent of the child pursuant to a valid written agreement between the parent and a gestational carrier. Any leave granted to an eligible employee due to the serious health condition of an eligible family member may be taken consecutively or intermittently, depending on legitimate needs. Employees must provide prior notice and comply with requests for medical certification. Any leave granted due to birth or adoption of a child must begin within one-year of the birth or adoption.

ARTICLE 27 – MEDICAL AND DENTAL INSURANCE

Section 1. All full-time employees are eligible to participate in the Employer's group health, vision and dental plans. The Employer may unilaterally change health benefit providers so long as the new plan provides benefits that are equal to or better than the current benefits. If the Employer seeks to otherwise change benefits, it may seek to bargain with the Union regarding the issue.

Section 2. Employees shall contribute 18% of their health insurance premiums. If the Employer believes that a change in employee contributions is needed for any benefit year, it may seek to bargain with the Union regarding the issue.

Section 3. All full-time employees are eligible to participate in the Employer's Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA). The maximum dollar amount that may be credited to an HRA Account for an Employee who participates for an entire 12-month period of coverage is $3000 for employees with single coverage and $9,000 for employees with all other coverages. The Employer shall bear the entire cost of administering the HRA Plan. The Employer may seek to bargain with the Union regarding any changes to the HRA.

Section 4. Upon request of either party, there shall be bargaining over any changes to the health benefits plans or employee contribution rate prior to the start of the annual benefit year.

ARTICLE 28 – REIMBURSEMENT FOR EXPENSES

Section 1. The Employer shall reimburse employees for reasonable expenses incurred for training or business that is approved in advance by the Employer. All travel outside the county requires prior written approval of the Managing Director. Receipts are required for all business and travel expenses.

Section 2. No employee shall be required to purchase classroom supplies.

ARTICLE 30 – 401K RETIREMENT PLAN

Section 1. 401K

All employees shall be entitled to participate in the Employer's 401k Retirement Plan upon hire.

- a. Upon hire, employees will be automatically enrolled to the Plan and will contribute 2% of their salary to the Plan. After the first year of employment, an employee's automatic contribution will increase by 2% every year until it reaches a maximum contribution of 4%.
- b. An employee who does not wish to participate in the Plan may opt out of contributions to the Plan via the plan's online portal.
- c. The first four percentage points (4%) of salary invested by an employee in the 401K plan will be matched dollar for dollar by the Employer's matching contribution. Example: Employee contributes 1%, Employer matches 1%.
- d. Employees are advised to review the Plan Document for more information about the Plan.
- e. The Employer will coordinate informational sessions for covered members on an annual basis.

Section 2. Safe Harbor Plan

LCDP participates in a Safe Harbor 401(k) Plan that meets certain IRS requirements.

Specifically, safe harbor plans ensure that the employer's contributions are 100% vested from day one. This gives employees full access to their contributions and matching funds, even if they leave the company before retirement.

ARTICLE 31 – PERSONNEL FILES

Section 1. All employees may inspect their personnel files. Any inspection will take place by appointment at an office designated by the Employer, at a time that does not interfere with the Employee's job duties and will not be considered work time, even if performed during normal working hours. If an employee disagrees with the accuracy of any statement in the files and no correction can be agreed upon, the employee may submit an explanatory statement, which shall be placed in the file.

ARTICLE 32 – DRESS CODE

Section 1. The purpose of this policy is to establish a dress code that ensures a professional, inclusive, and safe working environment for all employees. The policy is designed to reflect the company's values and foster a respectful, comfortable atmosphere for everyone. All employees are expected to adhere to the dress code, with specific exceptions as directed by management for special activities or events.

- Accessories: Belts, ties, scarves, and jewelry should be modest and professional.

Employees should avoid wearing overly casual clothing, such as:

- Inappropriate Clothing and Head Garments:
- Sweatpants, leggings (unless paired with an appropriate top or dress), and shorts.
- Tank tops, crop tops, or clothing with offensive or inappropriate images/text.
- Ripped, torn, or excessively distressed clothing.
- Flip-flops, slippers, or sneakers that are not part of business attire.
- Durags, bandanas, or other similar items that do not align with a professional work environment.

Section 3. Employees working in childcare or early education settings may have additional dress code requirements in accordance with the Department of Children and Families Office of Licensing – Child Care Center Manual. Dress code guidelines include, but are not limited to:

Safety First: Clothing must not pose any safety hazards to children. For example, avoid wearing jewelry, scarves, or loose items that could be grabbed or cause accidents.

- Closed-Toe Shoes: Shoes should be practical, comfortable, and closed-toe to ensure safety during physical activities and when interacting with children.
- No Loose Fabrics: Avoid overly baggy clothing that may interfere with activities or present tripping hazards.

Section 4. Exceptions to the dress code are as follows:

- Casual Days: On certain days, employees may be permitted to wear more casual attire (e.g., jeans, casual tops), provided they still maintain a neat and professional appearance.
- Special Activities: During team-building events, community outreach, or other special occasions, management may provide guidelines for attire that suits the activity's nature.

Section 5. Employees have the right under the National Labor Relations Act to wear union buttons and hats, T-shirts and sweatshirts with union insignia that might not otherwise conform with the dress code requirements of the above sections except where doing so would jeopardize child safety.

- Note: Employees in need of a religious accommodation regarding any aspect of the dress code policy are required to submit a formal request to the HR Office. Management will address any clothing deemed inappropriate or unprofessional on an individual basis.

ARTICLE 33 – RELATIVES

Section 1. There shall be no prohibition against a relative of an employee being employed by LCDP, except that a relative shall not be in the same worksite as the employee. No employee may be assigned to a position where they would directly or indirectly report to a related employee.

Section 2. To maintain a professional and unbiased educational environment, it is essential that teachers and assistant teachers are not related to each other within the same classroom. Additionally, they should not be responsible for supervising children to whom they are related. This policy helps ensure fairness, objectivity, and the avoidance of any potential conflicts of interest.

Employees will be provided with a copy of, and will comply with, applicable health and safety rules and procedures.

Section 3. Employees shall cooperate fully in providing all relevant information concerning health and safety problems. Employees shall immediately report any work place health or safety problem to the Managing Director and/or Director of Human Resources. The Managing Director and/or Director of Human Resources shall record all complaints and forward them to the appropriate authority within 24 hours. The Employer will promptly investigate any report of a health or safety problem, determine the validity of same, and take prompt remedial action where appropriate. Employees will not be required to work in conditions where work in such conditions would not be permitted under governing health and safety laws.

Section 4. Employees shall immediately report any on-the-job injury to their immediate supervisor, who will notify Human Resources Representative. The Employer shall take appropriate action to ensure that employees who suffer injury on-the-job are provided with appropriate medical attention. The level of attention will depend on the nature of the injury. If the employee is not fit to drive, the Employer shall provide transportation to the Employer-designated medical provider. In the event of a severe injury requiring emergency hospital care, use of an ambulance will be authorized by the Employer.

Section 5. If an employee who is injured on the job requires follow-up medical treatment or visits at the medical provider, follow-up workers compensation appointments may be on working time during shift hours for full-time employees, contingent upon the employee providing the Employer with adequate notice of such appointment, and reporting to work for the balance of the normally scheduled shift, and there being an inability to schedule the appointment outside of working hours.

Section 6. Except for cleaning and sanitizing of work areas, classrooms or bathrooms required by State regulations or guidelines, worksites are to be regularly cleaned and sanitized by custodial and maintenance staff.
